HOW IT WORKS

This collection of 39 bedtime stories is a fantastic way to promote reading for pleasure at home - right from the start!

Every book has been carefully selected to help parents with a calming bedtime routine. These beautifully illustrated books with lyrical text will help little ones relax and provide parents and children with precious time together at the end of the day.

- Send a different bedtime story home with each child in your class, every week of the school year.
- The books have been selected for their positive, calming & supportive themes.
- We have also included books that encourage children to talk about their feelings & chat about their day.
